

5 Out of 5 stars

Studying abroad in Florence was an unforgettable experience. The city's rich history and vibrant culture made every day exciting, from exploring famous art to enjoying authentic Italian food. What made the program special was learning with our friends in the classroom and out in the city. We gained confidence, made lifelong friends, and discovered a new sense of independence. We highly recommend this program to anyone looking to broaden their horizons and make lasting memories.

By: Peter Laphen, Kathryn Jacketti, Gia Sabatino